Mgr. W.A. Purdy,
Secretariat ad Christianorum
Unitatem Fovendam,
Vatican City.

Dear Bill,

Prot.N. 860/77

Many thanks for your letter of 28th March in reply to mine to Pierre Duprey.

I think this makes all clear and we are generally agreed that from a Vatican point of view the consultations should not begin until the spring of 1978.

I shall be in Rome at the end of the month for the Archbishop of Canterbury's visit and no doubt we can talk about any matters then.

With all good wishes,

Yours ever,

J.H.

The 'Pan' A/Rc conference stems directly from the Informal Talks of 75 & 76. Bishop H and the Sec. for Unity are arranging them for Feb. 78. (possibly 5 each side - venue undecided).

I am not sure under what auspices an 'English' consultation would take place?

CC. The Reverend C. Hill.

Gen. Synod? House of Bishops?

CFR? BMU?

Let us be careful how many consultations there are.

I had understood that there was to be an "English" multilateral ecumenical consultation upon the Archbishop's visit to Rome to inaugurate Geneva and the Anglo-Catholic conference - perhaps at the end of 1977.

Is a 'Pan' A/Rc consultation also proposed?
